

Jennifer Elder

CPA | Shareholder

Jennifer Elder is an audit shareholder at Perkins & Co and has been with the firm since 1998. As the lead shareholder of the firm's Employee Benefit Plan Audit Practice Group, Jennifer is instrumental in the growth and development of this niche. Plus, Jennifer sits on the AICPA Technical Standards Enforcement Subcommittee, which supports the AICPA Professional Ethics Division.

Jennifer has extensive skills and experience performing both full and limited scope employee benefit plan audits, including experience managing audit teams for all types of plans such as defined contribution, defined benefit plan and health and welfare plans. She also assists plan administrators and plan sponsors with ERISA compliance and plan operations.

Jennifer's professional background includes over two decades of experience performing audits of employee benefit plans and previous management of corporate audits and reviews for clients in wide variety of industries. Jennifer now works exclusively in the employee benefit plan audit practice.
