

Jordan Patterson

CPA | Shareholder

With Jordan's passion for working with families and their businesses as well as his expertise in estates and trusts, he made a perfect fit for working with legacy planning here at Perkins. He has been a part of the Perkins team for 10 years and has worked his way up to becoming a shareholder.

As a shareholder in the Legacy Planning Department, Jordan has experience working with families and their closely held businesses, helping with estates and trusts.

At the University of Oregon, he majored in Accounting. Before coming to Perkins he was at Berntson Porter & Company for two years. Born and raised in Oregon as well as being a duck, he is a true Oregonian, and works with the Oregon Sports Angels.
